A great way to do this is our book, "Baby On The Way." I also found it helpful to give the older sibling some responsibility in caring for the new baby, such as going to get a fresh diaper during the changing procedure. Most toddlers love to "help" mom and this is a great way to keep them involved with the new baby..

Life with babies is, well, messy. And because messes happen - at home and on-the-go - being prepared is the way to be. These soft waterproof liners provide a warm and cozy layer of protection for your diaper changing pad or for any other place you may change your baby (hello, public restroom changing station). Plus, they're easy to wash and fit right into your diaper bag. Best of all, they'll ...
