Color Of My Words Summary

The Color of My Words is a 2000 children's novel by Tobagonian-American author Lynn Joseph. Set in the Dominican Republic, it follows a young girl, Ana Rosa, who wishes to become a writer even though her country's fanatical president prohibits the act of writing by anyone other than him. Ana Rosa soon comes face-to-face with the political implications of her aspiration, and with her revolutionary older brother, Guarío, becomes outspoken against the regressive law.
