Feathers Summary. By Jacqueline Woodson. Part 1 / Chapter 1 . Feathers Summary. Everything begins in Feathers when a new boy shows up at Frannie's school. This is a big deal because the boy (1) has long hair, and (2) is white. Frannie's school is all black, even though it's the 1970s and segregation is technically over.

Feathers Summary | Shmoop

The theme of "hope" recurs in the description of the Black Power movement, and in Frannie's musings on the Emily Dickinson poem, "Hope is the thing with feathers." Developing this metaphor, Woodson captures perfectly the questions and yearnings of a girl perched on the edge of adolescence, a girl who readers will take into their hearts and be glad to call their friend.
