However, The Andy Cohen Diaries is a more like a vacuous look at a shallow man as opposed to a deep look at a shallow year. Andy claims he "names names" and in some cases, he does. But when he names names, it's usually not to reveal anything yo This was the most self-serving drivel I have ever read in my life.

Quibi - The Andy Cohen Diaries

Andy Cohen's first book made me love him, but this actually proved to do the opposite. The title is correct. It is incredibly shallow. However, there was no "Deep Look". The only good parts of the book centered around his dog and his mom. It is hard to hear someone of his status lamenting over trivial things occurring around him and other famous people.
