It might not seem like it at first glance, but it takes a certain flair to decorate one's living space. This is even truer in cramped Tokyo apartments, where space comes at a premium price. With this in mind, Kyoichi Tsuzuki put together Tokyo: A Certain Style. "the perfect coffee table book for people with really small apartments." The book is an enormously tiny album of Tokyo abodes; it clocks in at eight inches tall, but packs in more than 400 photographs.
