Not what I expected from a Tom Gates book, I have read other titles in the series and they have had many more laughs than this book. However, I still thoroughly enjoyed reading it and my favourite person is Tom who is the main character and is in the band dogzombies. One of the band's songs called dogzombies rule becomes well known throughout the school after a group of people from an old folks home make a music for the song and post it to a video sharing site.
